Three Wild Animals

Brown Bears

Brown bears are big animals that live in North America, Europe, and Asia. They live in a variety of habitats, especially forests. Brown bears eat a mixed diet, including fruit, plants, leaves, and small animals. Babies stay close to their mothers. Other bears spend most of their time alone.

Spotted Hyenas

Spotted hyenas are the largest of all hyenas. They look like large dogs. However, they are more similar to cats. They live in different habitats around Africa in large groups of up to 80 members. Hyenas are meat-eating animals, but will eat almost anything. They are sometimes called “laughing hyenas” because of the sounds they make.

Giraffes

Giraffes are over five meters tall. This makes them the tallest animals in the world! They live in grassland habitats in Africa in groups of around six. They are plant-eating animals and eat a diet of leaves that they get from the tops of trees.

3. To train your falcon to catch animals, you need a lure. Tie meat to a rope on a stick. Swing the lure so the falcon tries to catch it.
4. Keep the falcon's place clean all the time. Animals can get sick in dirty places.

DON'Ts

Falconry

Falconry is a very old sport. It means hunting with falcons. Falcons are large birds that can fly very fast. People train falcons to catch small birds.

Training a falcon takes a lot of time and care. First, the falcon learns to listen to its trainer. The trainer teaches the falcon when to fly and when to come back. This helps build trust between the person and the bird.

During training, the falcon learns to fly high and watch carefully. It learns how to see prey and move quickly. This makes the falcon strong, fast, and alert.

Falconry is important in many cultures, especially in the UAE. For many Emiratis, falconry is not just a sport. It is an important tradition that has been passed down through families for many years.

Mrs. Kaaren: Thank you for having me on your show. Yes, I'm excited to talk about these special horses and how they can help people.

Radio DJ: Ok, so how are these horses different from other horses?

Mrs. Kaaren: Well, they are miniature horses. The main difference is that they are much smaller and easier to handle. They can also live for 30 years!

Radio DJ: Hmm… okay, very interesting! So, how do you train them to be a service horse?

Mrs. Kaaren: Training a service horse is very difficult. It can take up to eight months. First, you need to train the horses to lead so they can walk blind people around different places. Next, you must train them to understand 23 different instructions so they can know what to do for the person with a disability. Instructions can include "stay" and "come". Then, you must teach the horses to move around obstacles, like streetlights, crosswalks and especially other people! Haha… Of course, this is so that the blind person can be safe and doesn't get hurt. Finally, horses need to be trained to live with a family. However, they can't live in a house because it won't be big enough for them to move around in.

Radio DJ: Okay, wow! I've learned a lot about how to train miniature horses! Thank you so much for taking the time to tell us about them!
